Greetings from Shari-

I helped Jonathan share the potent deer medicine that entered our life recently (see below). So this month I am going to offer an activity of Light by Patricia Robles at EraofPeace.org

INVOKING DIVINE GOVERNMENT

New DNA codes are being activated within every person at this time by his or her I AM Presence. These codes contain not only the unfolding Divine Plan to reestablish Divine Government in the United States of America and the rest of the world, they contain viable solutions for the distorted and corrupt patterns of government that are surfacing to be healed and transmuted into Light.

As we affirm these words, know that we are joining in consciousness with thousands of Lightworkers all over the world who are invoking this Forcefield

IDEA OF THE MONTH

Harvesting Blessings

A few weeks ago during our Fall Equinox celebration ceremony we all harvested blessings. On large pieces of paper we had created cornacopia, and at their circular openings (mandalas) the participants drew all of the things they were now harvesting at the close of summer. We asked them, "What were the seeds you sowed in of Light with us.

THIS IS A CALL FOR DIVINE GOVERNMENT

I AM my I AM Presence, and I AM One with the I AM Presence of all Humanity. As One Breath, One Voice, One Heartbeat, and One Energy, Vibration and Consciousness of Pure Divine Love I Invoke...

My Father-Mother God and the great Beings of Light associated with cocreating Divine Government on this blessed Planet. I also invoke the Mighty Archangels and the Ascended Masters guarding the evolutions of Earth.

Blessed Ones, blaze the most intensified frequencies of Divine Will, Divine Love and Divine Wisdom from the very Heart of our Father-Mother God in, through and around every person involved with the governments of Earth in any way. I ask that you exponentially expand this Divine Light within the Heart Flame of every man and woman running for office in the USA at national, state and local levels.

Now Beloved Legions of Light, blaze these intensified frequencies of Divine Will, Divine Love and Divine Wisdom in, through and around every single registered voter in the United States of America. Awaken the entire electorate to the profound opportunity at hand and enlighten every person to the profound Truth that it is time for Divine Government to manifest NOW!

Let each person tangibly feel and experience the Power, Love and Wisdom of our Father-Mother God flowing through their Heart Flame as they vote for each candidate and all of the issues before them.

winter 2017, that rooted in Spring and blossomed in summer? What is the crop you can now enjoy, what are the fruits of your labor?" So, reflect upon these questions. Once you are clear, create your own cornucopia. Decorate your "horn of plenty" and fill it up with your beautiful harvest. Keep this image on display this Autumn to remind yourself of the abundance of your efforts, and to celebrate your growth on your sacred path.

INSPIRATIONS

I was passionate,
filled with longing,
I searched
far and wide.

But the day
that the Truthful
One
found me,
I was at home.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. THEATER:
The Laramie

I now invoke the I AM Presence of every person who will be elected during this election season and all of those who are presently serving at national, state and local levels to take full dominion of that person's thoughts, feelings, words, actions, beliefs and memories. Help that person to hear and to listen to the "still small voice within" that will guide him or her unerringly toward the fulfillment of the unfolding Divine Plan for this sweet Earth.

Now Beloved Ones, seal the activity of Light I have invoked this sacred and holy day in the Immortal Victorious Threefold Flame in my heart and the heart of every person on Earth. Expand this activity of Light daily and hourly a thousand fold until Planet Earth and ALL Life evolving upon her have God Victoriously completed our Ascension into the 5th-Dimensional Crystalline Solar Light frequencies of the New Earth.

Now through all Realms of Consciousness I decree:

VICTORY IS OURS IN LOVE GOVERNING THIS PLANET!

VICTORY IS OURS IN LOVE GOVERNING THIS PLANET!

VICTORY IS OURS IN LOVE GOVERNING THIS PLANET!

And so it is, Beloved I AM That I AM.

Blessings-
Shari

REFLECTIONS FROM JONATHAN:

I am choosing the color brown in honor of my latest teacher, the Deer. I am totally grateful for the lessons it has given me which I will share in this story.

Last Saturday, I went out to clean up the area in front of the Temple before our Sunday celebration of the Fall Equinox, a time of both letting go and harvesting the gifts of the Summer. We have a black walnut tree there which we consider a Guardian of the Temple, which produces an abundance of walnuts. As soon as I got my rake my attention was directed to our water sanctuary and I witnessed a majestic female deer laying down with its left leg stuck in the metal fence.

I recognized the power of the moment, and also felt fear and helplessness around what to do. What surprised me later was the anger I felt at the deer and myself for not knowing what to do. I quickly shifted out of that state and headed back to the house to bring out the Sacred Feminine. How incredible that Shari and Maria were meeting to do some of their last preparations for the Magdalene workshop and were both available. I also reached out to the township to enlist the help of experts who assist animals in these kinds of situations.

Shari and Maria came out and immediately responded with deep compassion. Maria suggested getting water filled with Rescue Remedy (a wonderful homeopathic which reduces stress). She slowly approached the deer and very softly offered it the water trying to get it to drink. Her willingness to make direct contact and to comfort the deer allowed me to come try to gently un-wedge its leg from the fence. I felt a deep compassion and love flowing through my hands to the deer, tending to what I saw as a helpless being.

I had also called the police to have them direct me to animal rescue and they assured me someone would show up to our property. As I was gently trying to assist the freeing of the leg, Maria suggested I try to dismantle the fence and got some tools to do so. Neither the leg nor the fence could be moved. Then a police officer arrived at the scene and asked if he could look at the deer. After one quick look he turned around with a pained expression and informed us that this deer had contracted a virus that was endemic to our area (200 have deers have contracted it). It was bleeding from its left eye and foaming at the mouth. The officer told us that this disease slowly harms the deer until it dies.

Shari and Maria both had tears in their eyes and Shari as a mother bear said reflexively: "We are not going to shoot the deer! Can't it be rehabilitated?." The officer stated it would be dead in 10 hours and that it would suffer the whole time. Maria in her most gentle way helped Shari ground and process the information. As hard as this was we all understood the most humane and merciful way forward was to shoot the deer. The officer was a gem, an embodiment of the Sacred Masculine. He was respectful as we asked him if we could have 10 minutes to do a ceremony with tobacco to honor the soul of the deer and to help it transition. We honored the deer. Maria and Shari then left the scene to return to the house to offer more prayers and I felt it important to be with the officer so he did not need to do this task alone.

He needed two shots to end this life and I could see by his pained expression that even though he had done this before, it was never easy. He later told me that he was a hunter and seeing a deer have to die this way was disturbing since it was not in alignment with the natural life cycle.

I was prepared to do a burial of the deer on our property. I had buried a deer skeleton the year before and told him about it. He told me that it would almost be impossible to dig to the depth where this being would not be scavenged by raccoons, foxes and vultures. He suggested we bring it to the road where the game commission could pick it up and even do some testing on its virus to see if it fit the pattern of the others.

Here is what I was struck with as a result of this experience:

- a) The incredible community that surrounded the deer in its helplessness and allowed the best possible outcome of this situation.
- b) The Sacred Feminine (Shari and Maria) combined with Sacred Masculine (myself and the officer) working together harmoniously with Mercy and Compassion..
- c) The event occurred on the Fall Equinox (a day marking equal amount of Light and Dark) and while doing clean up in preparation for ceremony the next day.
- d) How I shifted from an initial anger/fear towards the deer for its getting stuck in the fence, to an incredibly deep loving compassion for this being.

As I finish writing I now am coming to a deeper felt awareness of this event. Last night Shari and I went to see a play called the Laramie Project which details the reactions of Laramie Wyoming residents to the hate crime/murder of a gay college student in their town in the late 1990's. Like the Black Klansman movie, this play is a non-Hollywood account of how fear in a community can turn into hate, prejudice, and brutality. My take from the play is that all prejudice stems from fear, all hate stems from fear. How easy it can be to move from fear to anger. My initial helplessness/fear in the sighting of this deer moved me to an initial anger. My fear moved me from unity to separation, it was the deer over there on the fence and me over here not knowing how to handle to situation. Fairly quickly my heart took back over and I moved into compassionate action. We are all cleaning ourselves up from the fear based distortions that love in us. The important thing is to recognize the fear lives that lives in us and to consciously move from fear (separation) back into Love (unity).

I love you all,
Jonathan
