Even your coldest winter
Happens for the best of reasons,
And though it feels eternal,
Like all you'll ever do is freeze,
I promise spring is coming,
And with it brand new leaves.

TREASURE THIS NOW

drink deeply from its complex fragility.

The unknown can leave one feeling unhinged. Fear swirling, threat looming, daily we are learning so much about ourselves and one another and the very nature of existence. Can we all just take a collective sigh? Remembering that the breath is the constant reassurance that we are OK and safe and secure and not alone and that there is ONLY LOVE.

Over this past, very vast, unprecedented year, the image you see above has consistently made its presence known in various ways through this platform. Each one appears as if it is the exact same photo taken with one camera by one human. And yet, this very image has appeared in DC, in NC, in FL... each of which I have shared with you here in the past months. And now this one, taken by a New HUman in Volcano, Hawaii – the exact same image appearing in not so random places by humans that have something very significant in common; connection to a new energy, a new consciousness, a new dispensation of Being in resonance with a New Earth experience.

I felt guided to speak to it here at a time when many are sensing the New Reality in profound and undeniable ways. This image, first and foremost, is about energy. It is appearing very purposefully in clearly undeniable ways. I have been sitting with this photo in deep stillness, meditating on its frequency, presence and LIGHT ~ allowing it to make its way into my heart and knowing. This image represents the bridge portal of the Vesica Piscis.

In Sacred Geometry, the Vesica Piscis is a form that is said to give birth to all form, the birthplace of reality. The center point or “heart” of 2 circles joining together, is the place where 2 distinct forms join together in harmony, in perfect balance. When 2 distinct bodies join together, (as in old and new paradigm) the overlapping union symbolizes our relationship to Divine/Source Creator/God through our 3rd Eye, the pineal stargate, the eye of the Beloved.

This all feels especially relevant in this NOW, as a New Reality powerfully anchors a new grid in our world, while another equally defiant old paradigm clings destructively to archaic structures. There is, indeed, a felt, palpable give and take, push and shove, “turf war” metaphorically underway ~ the new reality and Light is just pouring in and the old reality is scampering, unconsciously pushed to extreme demonstration in desperation. Many things are happening simultaneously.

Reflections from Jonathan-

I studied astrology while studying for my doctorate in psychology. My metaphysical leanings were essential as I poured through behavioral science. I was struck by the accuracy of astrology.

Each astrological sign is influenced by a planet. The sign Aquarius is influenced/ruled by the planet Uranus. Uranus was discovered or better said came into our consciousness, at the time of the French Revolution and when electricity was discovered. I find it no accident as we move into the Aquarian age that there are so many quick changes that appear like thunderbolts.

In the last several years we have had many quick changes on all levels whether it be geologically, socially, politically, economically. Within the last 20 years we have seen the World Trade Center suddenly collapse, a recession in 2007, Katrina in 2009, and in the last year COVID, George Floyd's murder and the racial riots and unrest. The election was tumultuous with much sudden violence surrounding it.

Each incident mentioned above has created much pain, fear, and loss. Each of these events have been wake up calls for us to become more conscious and to deepen our humanity. These are events which have created much individual pain and fear and for those of us affected I have deep compassion. At the same time these are opportunities step out of victimhood and into empowerment, to open our eyes and consciousness to what needs to be changed within and without.

An astrologer recently alluded to our Age of Aquarius: "The Age of Aquarius upon us. The word "Aquarius" comes from Latin meaning "water-carrier, water-pourer." Its astrological symbol represents water, but looks like an electrical jolt. And rightfully so—Aquarius connects us to energies of originality, eccentricity, freedom, radical expression, and epiphanies of all sorts. It craves innovation and orients us to the future and what is possible. When sparked it catalyzes creativity, new insights, or exciting novelty. Activated Aquarius energy in our society spurs technology breakthroughs—it's arguably what gave us the Internet. Yet Aquarius energy also compels us to consider social justice as part of the collective and communal experience."

(J Southern Studio)

I like what is written above as it talks about the electrical jolt into what is possible. What new level insights are you receiving?

What new actions are you taking?

Love-

Jonathan
